Clear Creek ISD presents “Young At Art” Student Art Exhibit at The Arts Alliance Center at Clear Lake, celebrating Youth Art Month

Youth Art Month is a nationwide, annual observance focusing upon the importance of youth art and the value of quality art education for all young people. The Crayon Water Color and Craft Institute initiated Youth Art Month in March of 1961. This celebration provides a unique opportunity to showcase the artistic talents and skills of young people in America and to acquaint the public with art programs in our schools.

Clear Creek ISD is proud to share the outstanding artistic achievements of our students. The exhibit contains approximately 500 works of art produced by students in Kindergarten through 12th grade representing the Clear Creek Independent School District Visual Arts program.

Exhibit Days: March 25-April 7

Exhibit Location: The Arts Alliance Center at Clear Lake, 2000 Nasa Pkwy, Nassau Bay
