

STAR WARS: THE CLONE WARS EXPERIENCE WILL KICK OFF MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND AT SPACE CENTER HOUSTON

(HOUSTON) May 12, 2010 The force will be with you once again as Space Center Houston kicks off another all-new and original Lucasfilm adventure beginning Memorial Day weekend with Star Wars: The Clone Wars, an interactive experience where visitors can step into their favorite action scene from the Lucasfilm epic series to face breath-taking challenges and memorable quests such as blazing through the galaxy on a vertical 360 degree loop; joining an intensely fun round of Clone Wars blaster training or testing your strength nearly 20 feet above the ground.

Once visitors step through the colossal and colorful portal of Star Wars: The Clone Wars, the adventure will begin!

Clone Wars Blaster Training

Grab a blaster and join the clone troopers on the front lines as they prepare for a battle of galactic proportions against Ventris and her band of Separatists in this intensely fun and heart-pounding experience. There may not be much time to scope out the enemy before you head into the battlefield, face the enemy and save the Republic.

Blue Cliffs of Vanqor

Master one of the most challenging climbing experiences in this galaxy by scaling up this ‘intelligent’ rock formation that can track your every move with lights and sound. As you make your ascension up this massive cliff – you must travel in the right direction or the mission will surely be doomed!

Battle Droids

Strap in and take off for a sky battle against the droids in this fast-paced high-flying adventure. It's up to you on how quickly you speed up, over and around a vertical 360 degree loop that can leave just about any Clone Wars fan breathless!

Ziro Hutt's Palace

It will only take H2O and you to strike up some fun alien tunes at Ziro The Hutt's Palace. Water jets used as a keyboard or strings will make these unique musical instruments create a wide scale of notes and chords. Bring your camera for a special photo op with the band for proof of your musical alien adventure.

The Castle of Teth

Attempt to navigate and journey through this mind-blowing mental challenge filled with infinite mirror reflections, endless hallways and a new twist through every corridor. Retrace your footsteps in this intensely fun venture and discover the path may have already changed.

Chasms of Geonosis

Put your physical limits to the test as you make your way across obstacles and various challenges nearly 20 feet above the ground. It's a feat that can only be completed by a highly-skilled Jedi or a true Star Wars fan!

*Tickets purchased online at www.spacecenter.org through May 31, 2010 will be sold for half off the regular general admission through the H.O.T program. Those tickers are valid May 22 through September 19, 2010.
